

What is the Legacy Partnership?

Legacy giving is vital to sustain the future of arts in the region. Newlyn Art Gallery & The Exchange, Penlee House Gallery & Museum and Leach Pottery, based in Penwith, Cornwall, have partnered together to raise awareness about this.

About Making a Will

Making a will is simple and straightforward and ensures that your wishes are carried out after you pass away. A legacy gift is a charitable donation left in your will. It is important to take professional advice from a solicitor to ensure that your intentions are expressed in the correct legal terms.

Understanding Legacy Terms

A Legacy Gift can be a specific cash sum or items of values such as paintings or artefacts.

A Residual Bequest is a percentage of your estate and is least affected by inflation.

A Reversionary Bequest means that the percentage of your estate will only pass to your chosen charity after the death of a spouse or relative, protecting the needs of your loved ones.

Codicil is the addition of legacy gifts to an existing will.

What are the tax benefits?

By giving 10% or more of your net estate to charity you may reduce the rate of Inheritance Tax for your heirs.

PENLEE HOUSE

“Situated within a stone’s throw of where they were painted, Penlee House Gallery & Museum is the only UK public museum dedicated to collecting and exhibiting the art of the world-famous Newlyn School that flourished from the 1880s onwards.”

The Friends of Penlee House is a registered charity that supports the activities of Penlee House Gallery & Museum. By leaving your legacy to the Friends of Penlee House you are helping the Gallery to build on its award-winning programmes, including:

- > Researching, publishing catalogues and staging exhibitions about the world-famous Newlyn School of artists.
- > Providing opportunities for people of all ages to learn and engage with the historic collections.
- > Delivering exceptional education activities, for schools, colleges and lifelong learning.

“Leaving a gift to the Friends of Penlee House was a simple and inexpensive process.”

NEWLYN ART GALLERY & THE EXCHANGE

“Legacy gifts have been vital in our work as an educational charity. Your gift will help us to support the talents of emerging artists, shaping the future of contemporary art.”

Newlyn Art Gallery & The Exchange offers an exhibition and learning programme that supports the careers of emerging regional artists as well as bringing the work of national and world-renowned contemporary artists to West Cornwall.

Whether hosting workshops, events, exhibitions or simply as a great place to meet friends and share a coffee, both Newlyn Art Gallery & The Exchange are beautiful places, that sit at the heart of the community.

“What would Penwith’s Contemporary art scene be without Newlyn Art Gallery?”

LEACH POTTERY

“Bernard Leach’s historic home and workplace in St Ives is the birthplace of studio pottery. As a museum, working studio and learning space it is vital to the future of ceramic education.”

Leach Pottery has been central to the studio pottery movement worldwide, since it was founded in 1920 by potter, writer, poet and philosopher, Bernard Leach. Today Leach Pottery bridges heritage and creative sectors with a museum, exhibition spaces and working production studio. Leach Pottery provides:

- > Education about the life and work of Bernard Leach and his circle whilst preserving his former home and workplace.
- > Exhibits examples of Bernard Leach’s work and his contemporaries, celebrating ceramic arts.
- > Provides training in the art, craft and making of pottery, keeping these skills alive.

“Leach Pottery is perfect for anyone wanting to get creative with clay in a truly unique and inspiring studio.”
