TIM SHAW WHAT REMAINS

10 FEB – 12 MAY

A solo exhibition bringing together major works by sculptor Tim Shaw RA. Drawn from personal experience, What Remains features two installations that address head-on the global presence and effect of terrorism and the pervasive sense of hidden powers having control over our lives.

Mother, The Air Is Blue, The Air Is Dangerous is an immersive experience using video and sound. Soul Snatcher Possession is a sculptural installation which portrays an ambiguous meeting of figures, the air taut with menace.

What Remains is a partnership with Anima-Mundi to present Tim Shaw's work across two sites in Cornwall. Something Is Not Quite Right at Anima-Mundi, St Ives, in 2017, presented new sculptural installations.

Event: Thu 8 Mar, 19.30. Join Tim Shaw for a talk about the themes of the exhibition. Free, all welcome.
