Photo by Steve Tanner

Newlyn Art Gallery & The Exchange is supported by donations, Supporters' and Patrons' subscriptions, business sponsorships, volunteering, legacies and other gifts.

Our Big Give Christmas Campaign 2018 has enabled us to create an age-friendly environment in the galleries and establish regular Tea, Cake & Art sessions at The Exchange for older people living with loneliness and memory loss. With your help, donations big and small, and sponsorship from Penderlaw Solicitors, Kelsall Steele and Postcode Support Trust, we reached our target of £7,000. Thank you to all our supporters, volunteers and friends for making this happen!

All money donated to the gallery through donations, regular payments, subscriptions, gifts in wills, and sponsorship will be doubled until August 2019 by Catalyst: Evolve making your donation work twice as hard.

HOLISTIC SCIENCE AND WISDOM TRADITION

16 FEB – 18 MAY

This exhibition draws on ancient traditions from the Amazon rainforest and European alternatives to mainstream science. Abel Rodriguez, an elder from the Nonuya community in the Colombian Amazon, paints intricate landscapes to convey his ancestral understanding of the indigenous plants and lifecycles of the rainforest. Gemma Anderson's drawings emerge from her collaborations with a cell biologist and a philosopher of science, while a series of sound sculptures by Serena Korda draws on a European worldview that preceded the scientific revolution. Delfina Muñoz de Toro's visionary paintings and songs are informed by her experiences living with communities in the Amazon.

Curated by Gina Buenfeld, the exhibition includes ethnographic textiles from the Shipibo and Huni Kuin peoples.

Thank you to José Roca at FLORA ars+natura and Tropenbos International.

TRANSITION 2019

19 FEB – 16 MAR

JOMO

Transition is an opportunity for artists, or artist groups, to use the gallery space to consider how a series of works is developing or to try out ideas for an installation or interactive project. Transition gives artists the time and space to take ideas forward in a public environment without the constraints of presenting a finalised exhibition. It offers visitors the chance to see work in a state of flux, meet the artists and discuss the work.

INVISIBLE
NARRATIVESNEW CONVERSATIONS ABOUT TIME AND PLACE

23 MAR – 15 JUN

"A rural ecologist, an urban drifter and a diasporic optimist examine the invisible layers underneath, the lost spaces on the edge and the forgotten places in between."
– Lubaina Himid.

The exhibition explores the work of three artists, Rebecca Chesney, Lubaina Himid, and Magda Stawarska-Beavan, who consider the poetic investigation of place, space and time, through painting, sound installation and place-based research.

All three artists use their work to uncover the hidden, understand a place as it is experienced by those who know it well, and remember apparently unknown histories.

Each artist has made new work for the show.

Invisible Narratives is curated by Lubaina Himid CBE, winner of the 2017 Turner Prize.
