

TENTH ANNIVERSARY

POWER OF TEN

This year we are celebrating our tenth anniversary and until 2019 all donations, subscriptions, sponsorship, and legacy gifts will be matched by Catalyst: Evolve funds. The value of your gift is thereby doubled, meaning we can support more artists, bring more art to the region and offer more creative opportunities to young people and families. We're aiming to raise £100,000 by 31 December - follow our progress on the window totaliser at The Exchange! #PowerOfTen

ROBYN DENNY

A MAJOR SOLO EXHIBITION

Robyn Denny

ON SHOW AT BOTH NEWLYN ART GALLERY
23 SEP - 6 JAN 2018 AND
THE EXCHANGE 7 OCT - 6 JAN 2018

Robyn Denny (1930-2014) was one of an internationally acclaimed group who transformed British art in the 1950s, 60s and 70s, leading it into the international mainstream. His resolutely urban, large-scale abstract paintings captured the cool, modernising mood of the time.

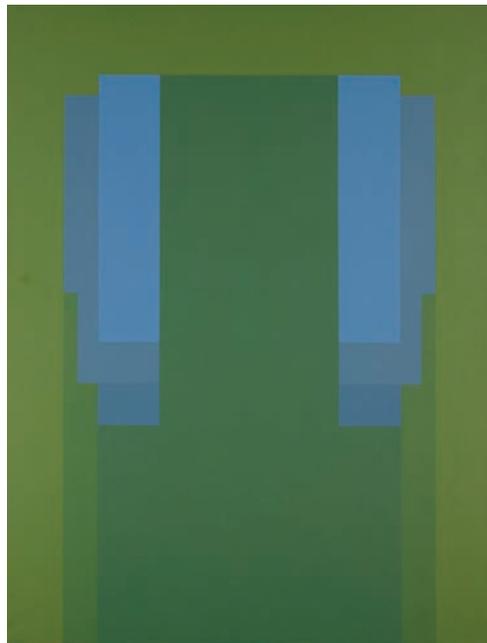

This exhibition, presented concurrently at both our venues offers an in-depth understanding of the evolution of his work over five decades and an exploration of the importance and contemporary relevance of his work. Importantly, the exhibition will draw attention to later works, dating from the early 1980s and beyond, which have rarely been presented publicly before.

Denny graduated from RCA in 1957, and within a decade was enjoying international success, alongside his contemporaries Howard Hodgkin, Bridget Riley, Peter Blake and David Hockney. In 1966 he represented Britain at the Venice Biennale with Anthony Caro, Bernard Cohen, Harold Cohen and Richard Smith and at the time of his 1973 Tate retrospective he was the youngest artist to be so honoured. This exhibition is a celebration of the work of an artist key to British abstraction, who kept his eye firmly on America and his London contemporaries.

The exhibition will coincide with the launch of Tate St Ives' expanded galleries this October, enabling them to tell the story of a lyrical form of British abstraction, rooted in the landscape of West Penwith, which emerged during the pre-and post-war periods. In contrast, the Robyn Denny exhibition will explore the development of an equally important urban abstraction that emerged from the late 1950s, concurrently, but largely independent of developments in St Ives. The exhibition offers a more nuanced understanding of the importance of British abstraction in the period.

Opening event: The Exchange,
Saturday 14 Oct, 13.00 - 15.00
