House of Questions is a week-long event of FREE workshops, food, talks, art, performance, conversations and open source data. This event is a space for all ages to come together and enjoy learning in dynamic, unexpected and exciting ways; how can we see the world differently in our 'networks of networks'?

NEWLYN ART GALLERY & THE EXCHANGE

PALACE OF CULTURE

Inspired by Eastern European clubhouses for workers, Newlyn Art Gallery has been transformed into an establishment of recreational activity.

Hosted by a different Cultural Secretary each week, The Palace of Culture will nourish both body and mind with workshops, performance and other stimulating pursuits designed to fight cultureless leisure.
