THE MAKERS' MARKET AT THE EXCHANGE

Mazy Day, Sat 29 Jun, 10.00 – 17.00

Free Entry

The Makers' Market is a carefully curated event, showcasing the work of local and regional makers, with a focus on quality, innovation and creativity. At home at one of the major contemporary art venues in Cornwall, it is a platform for both established makers as well as start-ups, and committed to promoting contemporary design, artisanry and the handmade.

Mazy Day is the busiest day in town, with 36,000 visitors streaming into Penzance.

The Maker's Market at The Exchange sits in central position, and being included in the road closure area is situated perfectly within the visitor flow.

£80 INDOOR STALLS

We have a limited amount of tables available at sizes 4 x 2.5 and 6 x 2.5 foot, but makers are welcome to bring their own bespoke stand, as long as size has been agreed in advance.
