

NEWLYN ART GALLERY & THE EXCHANGE

THE PICTURE ROOM

KATE WALTERS
14 FEB – 18 APR

New oil and watercolour paintings created during a residency on Iona, Island Bodies is a reflection on islands, human and non-human bodies: their fluids, and where they overlap.

WILLIAM ARNOLD
20 APR – 27 JUN

An ongoing body of work that documents - in razor-sharp detail - specimens of flora collected in neglected places, such as roadsides and industrial sites in an homage to the pioneers of Victorian botany.

SARAH WOODS
11 JUL – 22 AUG

A new series of works based on the landscape of West Cornwall. Each work begins as a series of drawings made in a sketchbook before being worked up and translated to an etching plate.

RICHARD BALLINGER
24 AUG – 3 OCT

Penzance-based artist Richard Ballinger presents a series of exotically coloured landscape paintings. Drawing from the landscape Ballinger reimagines these scenes in the studio to create works with thickly-impastoed interlocking shapes, or blocks of colour.

The Picture Room & Studio present changing exhibitions of paintings, prints, drawings, and ceramics for sale. All profits from sales directly help to support the gallery's learning and exhibition activities. Illustrated price lists will be available from our website from the start of each exhibition.

JAKE CLARK
17 OCT – 9 JAN

New paintings focussing on figures and recreational architecture, based on collages made from Clark's own photographs of municipal buildings and seaside tourism.

IN THE STUDIO

RICHARD PHETHEAN
