SHOPS

Located at both our galleries and online, our shops stock a range of quality handcrafted work from emerging and established artist / makers, both regionally and nationally, including contemporary ceramics, jewellery and homewares.

Our shops also stock items from well known brands such as Pantone, Porter, cups by Huskee, a range of art equipment and materials, including Blackwing and Milan, and art books on techniques as well as individual artists.

SUPPORT US

Thank you for supporting creativity across our community.

We are delighted to be taking art out to nine primary schools, older people, young parents and marginalised people all over West Cornwall. Our partnerships with the Arts Council Collection and the National Portrait Gallery are not only bringing outstanding work to Cornwall, but also supporting people, especially those who have become most isolated, to take part and make art.

Black Voices Cornwall is an organisation that exists to enable Cornwall to become an actively anti-racist region.

“The ambition for Captured Beauty is for ethnically diverse visitors to feel seen through the works in this exhibition. It is also an opportunity for the white community to have an insight to how it feels to be a person of colour in the 21st century. We can all destroy racism, if we unite.”

– Abi Hutchinson, curator on behalf of Black Voices Cornwall.

SIMPLE TRUTHS

19 FEB – 4 JUN

Simple Truths is part of our New Voices Programme, which gives a platform to members of our community not often heard, through the curation of works from the Arts Council Collection.

The artworks for Simple Truths have been chosen by dads from the WILD Young Parents Project, while working on their Pengegon allotment in Camborne, during the spring and summer of 2021.

With each visit to their plot the dads selected an artwork from the Arts Council Collection catalogues, their choices sparking memories, reflecting interests, or simply expressing how they were feeling in that moment.

An interesting collection of artworks steadily formed, the annotated images photocopied and pinned up in their allotment shed. As the weeks passed their choices were explored, with conversations taking twists and turns, the long list of works edited down by autumn.

Simple Truths includes paintings, photographs, and sculptures by David Batchelor, Maeve Brennan, Shezad Dawood, Laura Ford, Seamus Nicolson, Richard Patterson, Liv Preston, Bob Robinson, Caroline Walker, and Bedwyr Williams.
