

ELIZABETH LOVEDAY
IN THE PICTURE ROOM

25 MAY-22 JUL 2023

NEWLYN
ART GALLERY
& THE EXCHANGE

In a new series of paintings Elizabeth Loveday explores the dialectics of beauty and brutality, solidity and fluidity, battered rock and beating heart. She imagines place through flesh and costume, through parade and dance, through folk tale, friends, and fancy, past and present. At the same time, she tells the story of people through the ritual of season, moon and mud, the celebration of tide and landing a big haul. Elizabeth's work is a reunion of self and the environment it inhabits. Using colour, texture, scale, and figurative drawing, she builds scenes of tenderness and frivolity to describe her home.
